Dilapidated, collapsed or abandoned partially constructed fences

Abandoned or discarded appliance such as refrigerators, stoves and freezers

Post-construction or demolition material resulting from, or as part of, construction or demolition projects

Where a yard is in any of the aforementioned conditions, the Corporation shall notify the owner of the property in writing of the breach of a condition of this by-law.

The owner or occupant shall have a minimum of ten (20) days to bring his or her yard into compliance with the provisions of this by-law.

The owner or occupant may request from the Chief Building Officer or designate an extension of time to achieve compliance

The Chief Building Officer or designate may extend compliance for a reasonable time

The reasonable time for compliance shall be determined by the Chief Building Officer or designate

After a reasonable time and in accordance with S.436(1) and (2) of the Municipal Act, the Corporation may enter onto the property for the purpose of determining if compliance has been achieved.

If, after an inspection under S.4 and after such a reasonable time as set out in S. 4(a) has passed, the CBO or designate determined that the property or any portion thereof remains in a non-compliant condition, the Corporation may enter the premise and perform the work necessary or authorize the entry and performance of the work. The work shall be done at the expense of the owner of the property and the cost of such work and any associated administrative fees shall be then due and payable to the Corporation that shall recover the expense in the same manner as municipal taxes.

Without limited S.5, the Corporation may, in conjunction with bringing the yard into compliance with this by-law, proceed with prosecution of the owner for breach of the terms of this by-law.

Every person who contravenes any provision of the by-law is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine as provided for in S.61 of the Provincial Offences Act R.S.O. 1990 cP.33.
