Home and transportation

- Seniors' Home Safety Tax Credit (<https://www.ontario.ca/page/seniors-home-safety-tax-credit>)

This tax credit can help with renovations to make your home safer and more accessible, helping you stay in your home longer. You are eligible if you are a senior or if you are someone who has senior relatives living with you. The credit is worth 25% of up to $10,000 in eligible expenses for a senior's principal residence in Ontario (the maximum credit is $2,500).

Find out about your rights and how to avoid common renovation scams.

Municipal initiatives

Contact your local municipality (<https://www.ontario.ca/page/list-ontario-municipalities>) for information about initiatives such as:

- Ontario Renovates – provides forgivable loans to eligible low-income homeowners and landlords to make necessary repairs to home or units to increase accessibility and create affordable rental housing or single-family homes
- Property Tax Relief for Low-Income Seniors and Low-Income Persons with Disabilities – provides relief from property tax increases that result from assessment reform for low-income seniors and people with disabilities who own residential property

The Ontario's Soldiers' Aid Commission

(<http://www.mcass.gov.on.ca/en/mcass/programs/community/SoldiersAidCommission.aspx>) provides assistance to Canadian veterans in need who served overseas and their dependants living in Ontario. The assistance is provided on a one-time basis to resolve a specific problem when all other resources have been exhausted. It does not support ongoing needs related to income deficiencies.

Funds may be granted to assist with buying:

- health-related items, like hearing aids, glasses, prescription drugs or dental needs
- home-related items, like rent, repairs, moving costs, furniture, repair/replacement of roof and furnace
- specialized equipment, like assistive devices, wheelchairs and prosthetics
- personal items, like clothing and specialized support services

Get information and apply for benevolent funds, including Ontario's Soldiers' Aid Commission, by contacting your local Royal Canadian Legion (<http://www.on.legion.ca/veterans-seniors/service-officers/benevolent-funds>) or Veterans Affairs Canada office (<http://www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/contact>) .

Veterans Affairs Canada

Veterans Affairs Canada (<http://www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/contact>) offers a range of services and benefits to eligible veterans and others. The benefits are available for conditions related to service in the Merchant Navy, Canadian Forces, Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) or those serving in support of the Canadian Forces in wartime or in Special Duty/Operational Areas.

Under One's Wing

In-Home Senior Respite Service

Providing temporary care relief to primary caregivers of seniors with physical, emotional and/or cognitive limitations.

My name is Heather Grant and I bring 25 years of experience including 11 years as a Recreation Therapist with the Alzheimer Society. I am a graduate of Sault College from the Community Gerontology/Working with the Aged Program and have a diploma in Adult Psychology. Most recently, I have a certificate in Music Therapy and am a Music Advocate for the Room 217 Foundation. My First Aid & CPR certificate is current, and I have a clear criminal reference check. I have decided to offer Respite Care to Caregivers who are caring for an individual in their own home to have a well-deserved break. Working with the Alzheimer Society, visits were limited to 1 to 1.5 hours and with living rural this did not leave much time for Caregivers to get groceries, attend medical appointments or meet a friend for lunch. This is where I come in! I offer a minimum of a 2-hour booking where I will come into your home and stay with the person you are caring for while you have a break and do what you need to.

As the Respite Care Provider my responsibilities include:

- Providing assistance, companionship, and comfort.
- Administering prescribed medications and monitoring vital signs.
- Assessing the physical, mental, and emotional conditions of clients.
- Facilitating appropriate professional intervention when required.
- Engaging clients in suitable activities, such as socializing, playing games, or reading out loud.
- Assisting clients with mobility, eating, drinking, and personal hygiene (does not include bathing).
- Performing general household duties such as light cleaning, cooking and laundry.
- Maintaining a hygienic and safe environment.

Sweet & Spicy Sesame Chicken Meatball Bowls

Delicious sesame chicken meatballs with crispy broccoli and a sweet and spicy ginger sesame sauce. These flavorful, protein-packed sesame chicken meatball bowls make the best weeknight dinner served with coconut rice, brown rice, or quinoa! Customize these bowls with your fav sides & garnishes.

Ingredients:

Sweet & Spicy Ginger Sesame Sauce:

- 1/4 cup soy sauce
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon sesame oil
- 1 tablespoon sesame seeds
- 1 tablespoon red chili paste
- 1 tablespoon fresh grated ginger
- 3 cloves garlic, minced.
- 2 tablespoons brown sugar (or coconut sugar)
- 1 teaspoon arrowroot starch (or sub cornstarch)
- 1 tablespoon toasted sesame oil

For the broccoli:

- 1 tablespoon toasted sesame oil
- 3-4 cups broccoli florets

For serving:

- Rice
- Scallions
- Cilantro
- Chopped roasted peanuts.

For The Meatballs:

- 1-pound lean ground chicken (or sub ground turkey)
- 1 egg
- 1/2 cup panko or gluten free breadcrumbs
- 2 green onions, finely diced (about 1/4 cup green onion)
- 1/2 cup finely diced cilantro
- 2 cloves garlic, minced.
- 1/2 tablespoon fresh grated ginger
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Freshly ground black pepper

Instructions

- 1) In a medium bowl, whisk together soy sauce, water, sesame oil, sesame seeds, red chili paste, ginger, garlic, brown sugar and arrowroot (or corn) starch.
- 2) In a large bowl, add the ground chicken, egg, breadcrumbs, green onion, cilantro, garlic, ginger, cayenne, salt and pepper. Use clean hands to mix and form into 16 golf ball sized meatballs.
- 3) Place a large deep skillet over medium-high heat and add in sesame oil. Add the meatballs and brown on all sides and cook until done and the meat thermometer reads 165 degrees F. This should take about 10-12 minutes total. You may need to do this in batches, depending on how many meatballs you can fit in your skillet without overcrowding them. When the meatballs are done cooking, transfer them to a plate and set aside. Keep the heat in the pan.
- 4) Wipe the skillet clean and add in 1 tablespoon sesame oil. Next add in broccoli florets, and cook, stirring frequently, for 6-8 minutes or until broccoli is slightly tender but still has a bite. The broccoli should get somewhat charred and slightly golden and crispy in places. Yum!
- 5) Add chicken meatballs back to the pan with the broccoli and pour the sauce over, simmer on low until the sauce thickens slightly, about 2-5 minutes.
- 6) Serve over rice of choice (we love my coconut rice!) and top with scallions, cilantro and chopped peanuts if desired.

Tip: to keep the ground chicken/turkey from sticking to your hands, wet your hands or spray them with nonstick cooking spray or coat them in a little oil before forming the meatballs.

To make paleo and/or gluten free sub 2-3 tablespoons coconut flour instead of using breadcrumbs.
